GENERAL INFORMATION

- The West Point Band performs concerts, ceremonies, and at athletic events for the U.S. Corps of Cadets. The ensemble can also be heard around the Greater Hudson Valley, New York City, and throughout the United States. Some of the concert venues the West Point Band has performed include Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, at Tanglewood, and the Meyerson Symphony Center.
- The main duties associated with this position are performing as principal flute in the Concert Band as well as piccolo in the Marching Band.
- Military personnel should also submit their Enlisted Records Brief, Commander's Intent to Release memo, and an Official DA Photo.
- Employment is contingent upon meeting Army enlistment qualifications and a minimum four-year service contract.
- In the event that a member of the current section wins the audition, the committee may decide to hire to fill the resulting vacancy.

An assignment in the West Point Band is stabilized. Promotion to Staff Sergeant is awarded after the completion of Initial Proficiency Training as well as four months service. Finalists will be invited to audition at West Point at government expense pending enlistment qualification. Finalists will be individually notified via phone. The West Point Band is an equal opportunity employer.
