

7th Annual Academic Luncheon

Monday, 10 May 1130 at the West Point Club

*“Above all, effective teaching is the primary obligation of the USMA faculty.”
- USMA Faculty Manual*

Approximately 50 faculty from eleven academic departments and from DMI and DPE are anticipated to complete the Master Teacher Program and receive certificates.

Monday, 10 May 2010
Luncheon cost is $12.00

Contact Mrs. Spreer (x7947) in the CTE or your department representative on the CTE Advisory Committee (see list) to sign up and pay.

Cash is preferred.

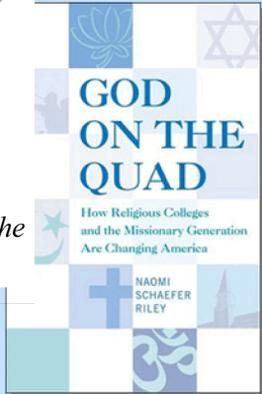

Signup by Mon, 3 May.

- CTE ADVISORY COMMITTEE
- COL Sweeney, BS&L*
 - Dr. Kowalski, C&LS*
 - Dr. Bristow, C&ME*
 - COL Goda, EE&CS*
 - Dr. Edwards, English*
 - Dr. Mansour, DFL*
 - Dr. Krakowka, G&EnE*
 - Dr. Nimick, History*
 - COL Heidenberg, Math*
 - LTC (R) Rick Metro, DMI*
 - Dr. Tendy, DPE*
 - MAJ Dabkowski, SE*
 - Dr. Dudley, SocSci*
 - Dr. Laimis, Physics*
 - Dr. Welton, Law*
 - LTC Ohlson, CEP*
 - Ms. Swik, Library*

2010 Apgar Award
The winner of the 2010 Apgar Award will be announced at the Academic Luncheon.

Keynote Speaker
Naomi Schaefer Riley,
Affiliate Scholar at the Institute for American Values,

Author of:
God on the Quad and until recently,
Deputy Taste editor of the Wall Street Journal

LTG Hagenbeck, BG Finnegan and BG Rapp will award MTP certificates to the graduates.

Franklin L. Hagenbeck
Lieutenant General, US Army
Superintendent

Patrick Finnegan
Brigadier General, US Army
Dean of the Academic Board

William E. Rapp
Brigadier General, US Army
Commandant of Cadets