

Dean's Weekly
Department of English and Philosophy

05 September 2012
Past Events

On 29 August 2012, Dr. Terri Sabatos, Department of English and Philosophy, accompanied ten cadets to New York City to visit the International Museum of Photography and the Museum of Modern Art. Cadets viewed some of the images they are studying in EP371, History of Photography. They also toured two special exhibitions: "President in Petticoats! Civil War Propaganda in Photographs," and "Weegee: Murder is my Business."

Art, Philosophy, and Literature major Caitlin Gamble, Class of 2013, contemplates one of the photographs in the exhibition "A Short History of Photography" at the International Center of Photography.