

Chaplain (LTC) Mark E. Fairbrother

Center for the Army Profession and Ethic (CAPE), West Point, NY:

Chaplain Ethicist, Branch Liaison, Analyst, Proponent Lead

Chaplain Mark Fairbrother has had the privilege of serving Soldiers and their families for the past 17 years on active duty. Prior to active duty he served three years as a Chaplain Candidate, three years as Chaplain with the 6219th Reception Battalion (USAR) and three years with the 14th Psychological Operations Battalion (USAR). During and prior to Reserve Duty, he served as pastor with the Community Bible Church of Livermore, CA (C&MA), Covenant Presbyterian Church (independent) of Orange, CA, and Peninsula Presbyterian Church (PCA), Monterey Peninsula, CA. He is ordained by the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), Northern California Presbytery (1987).

On Active Duty, Soldiers and families served have been members of:

5th BN, 101st AVN RGT, Fort Campbell, KY; 2d BN, 160th S.O.A.R. (A), Fort Campbell, KY; 1-36 IN BN, (1st Armor DIV), Friedberg, GE; 1st Brigade Combat Team, 1st Armor DIV, Friedberg, GE; Faculty, Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, KS; XVIIIth Airborne Corps, Fort Bragg, NC; 1st Brigade Combat Team, 82d Airborne DIV, Fort Bragg, NC; First Army Headquarters, Fort Gillem, GA; Center for the Army Profession and Ethic (CAC-TRADOC), West Point, NY.

Chaplain Fairbrother's advanced formal education includes degrees from Biola University, La Mirada, CA (B.A.), Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, PA (M.A.R., M.Div.), and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, South Hamilton, MA (Th.M. "The Intersection of Just War Theory, Romans 13:4, and the 1967 Arab-Israeli War"). He is privileged to have participated in the Chaplain Corps' Advance Civilian Schooling Program.

He and his wife of 36 years, Marise, live at West Point, NY. Their son, Jon, is an Army Armor officer, currently in school and training at Fort Bragg, NC. Their daughter, Suzanne Tanguma, lives with her NCO husband at Fort Hood, TX.

