

Two armored task forces lined up in P'yongyang on 13 June and then withdrew. Chinese recaptured the town on 17 June.

During this period many UN units were shifted from one part of the front to another or were sent to rear areas. Their sectors were taken over by flank units or by units drawn from reserve. Front-line dispositions on 23 May and 15 June are shown.

3rd Division was transferred from X Corps to this sector by 31 Mar.

ROK 2d Division shifted to corps left flank on 25 May.
