The only vegetation shown is the Brixner Forest, because of its tactical importance.

The map shows the Situation at Noon, 19 April and Movements Since 17 April 1809 in the Danube Campaigns. It includes key locations such as Ratisbon, Kelheim, Ingolstadt, Neustadt, Abensberg, Pfaffenhofen, Moosberg, Freising, Landshut, Eggmühl, Deggendorf, Cham, Straubing, Deggendorf, Ratisbon, and Vicinity. The map also indicates the movements of Napoleon (180,000), Charles (198,000), and other forces with specific numbers and positions.