It is the duty of the board to inquire about the academy’s morale and discipline, curriculum, instruction, physical equipment, fiscal affairs and academic methods. The board consists of presidential appointees and members of Congress.

Presidential appointees are Vice Chair Brenda Sue Fulton, Elizabeth Young McNally, Patrick J. Murphy, Bob Archuleta, Ethan Epstein, and John Travis Morrison. The Senators are, Richard Burr, and Kirsten Gillibrand. Representatives include Steve Womack, Mike Conaway, Steve Israel, Loretta Sanchez and Mike Pompeo.

About West Point:
The U. S. Military Academy at West Point is a four-year, coeducational, federal, liberal arts college located 50 miles north of New York City. It was founded in 1802 as America's first college of engineering and continues today as one of our nation’s premier leader-development institutions, consistently ranked among top colleges in the country. Its mission remains constant—to educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country and prepared for a career of professional excellence and service to the nation as an officer in the U. S. Army.
