“During their last three years at West Point, these new cadet-leaders have truly demonstrated the qualities of leadership and character and exemplify the values of Duty, Honor, Country that we strive to instill in all of our cadets,” said Caslen. “I’m confident they will provide outstanding leadership to the Corps of Cadets this academic year.”

About West Point
The U. S. Military Academy at West Point is a four-year, co-educational, federal, liberal arts college located 50 miles north of New York City. It was founded in 1802 as America’s first college of engineering and continues today as one of our nation’s premier leader-development institutions, consistently ranked among top colleges in the country. Its mission remains constant—to educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country and prepared for a career of professional excellence and service to the nation as an officer in the U. S. Army. For more information, go to www.westpoint.edu.
