PRINCETON REVIEW RANKS WEST POINT IN TOP 10 – Aug. 4, 2015

Other notables include No. 2 in “Best Health Services,” and No. 3 in both “Best College Library” and “Most Politically Active Students.”

The new 2016 edition profiles only about 15 percent of America’s 2,500 four-year colleges and four outside the U.S.

The Princeton Review does not rank the colleges in the book academically or from 1 to 380 in any category. Instead it reports in the book 62 ranking lists of "Top 20" colleges in various categories. The rankings are based on surveys of 136,000 students (average 358 per campus) at the colleges in the book in 2014-15 and/or the previous two school years. The survey asks students 80 questions about their school's academics, administration, student body, and themselves.
