RELEASE NO. 12-17

WEST POINT TO HOST KEEPERS OF THE PEACE POW WOW EVENT – May 3, 2017

WEST POINT, N.Y. – The Cadet Native American Club will host the Keepers of the Peace powwow here Sunday at Gillis Field House beginning at noon. The event is free and open to the public.

Native American dancers from throughout the northeastern United States have been invited to join in the festivities. The Birds of Prey Performance is scheduled for noon and 3 p.m. The powwow will conclude at 6 p.m. Native American food and craft vendors will be present.

The Keepers of the Peace powwow will showcase Native American heritage and its contribution to the nation. This event offers an opportunity to observe a variety of culturally diverse traditions.

Attendees should enter through Thayer or Stony Lonesome gates. Proper identification is required upon entering academy grounds and all vehicles are subject to search.

About West Point

The U. S. Military Academy at West Point is a four-year, co-educational, federal, liberal arts college located 50 miles north of New York City. It was founded in 1802 as America's first college of engineering and continues today as one of our nation's premier leader-development institutions, consistently ranked among top colleges in the country. Its mission remains constant—to educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country and prepared for a career of professional excellence and service to the nation as an officer in the U. S. Army. For more information, go to www.westpoint.edu.
