

TRAVIS HABHAB

ROOM 214, LINCOLN HALL, WEST POINT, NEW YORK 10996 • (845) 938-2342

EDUCATION

- May 2007 TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY, MAYS BUSINESS SCHOOL College Station, TX
Master of Business Administration, Additional Focuses in Finance and Homeland Security
- Team Leader, Championship Team, Ford MBA Technology Transfer Challenge.
 - Team Leader, Finalist Team, Principled Leadership Case Competition at Emory University.
 - Team Member, Mays MBA Recruiting Committee.
 - Studied “The Changing Business Environment in Europe” at WHU in Koblenz, Germany.
- May 2002 ARMY AVIATION CAPTAIN’S CAREER COURSE Fort Rucker, AL
- Commandant’s List.
- May 1998 KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY, SCHOOL OF BUSINESS Manhattan, KS
Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Economics Minor
- Trained Army fundamentals to over 100 Army cadets as the Senior R.O.T.C. Company Commander.
 - Dean’s List, Golden Key National Honor Society, the National Dean’s List.

EXPERIENCE

- 2007-Current UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY, U.S. ARMY MAJOR West Point, NY
Instructor of Economics and Finance, Department of Social Sciences
- 2004-2005 UNITED STATES ARMY CAPTAIN Fort Hood, TX and Iraq
Attack Helicopter Company Commander
- Deployed my company of 40 soldiers, 8 Apache Helicopters, and 3 Vehicles to Iraq to conduct yearlong combat operations.
 - Led the company in the planning and execution of attack, stability, and support operations utilizing lethal and agile teams to defeat hostile Iraqi regimes.
 - Employed my company to fight and win all decisive battles in Iraq, focusing on Baghdad, An Najaf, and Fallujah.
 - Tactically employed and maintained eight Apache Longbow Helicopters, three ground vehicles, and related equipment valued in excess of $260 million.
 - Maintained responsibility for the professional development, safety, morale, health, and welfare of 40 soldiers during harsh combat operations.
 - Developed a successful Family Readiness Group that cared for soldiers and their families throughout the deployment.
- 2002-2004 Assistant Operations Officer Fort Hood, TX
- Planned, coordinated, and supervised all training exercises for over 370 soldiers and 18 Apache Longbows to ensure the battalion was prepared to deploy world wide in support of any mission.
 - Managed a 12,500 flight hour program and $29 million air and ground budget for the Aviation Brigade.
 - Developed and maintained the training calendar along with land, range, and ammunition resources in order to synchronize essential tasks.
- 1999-2001 UNITED STATES ARMY LIEUTENANT Republic of Korea
Platoon Leader
- Trained, led, and employed a platoon of 20 soldiers and 4 Apache Helicopters to prepare for contingency operations through the Korean peninsula.
 - Supervised all officer and soldier evaluations, personnel strength and accountability reporting, payroll management, and public affairs for a 400 soldier Battalion.

RECENT LEADERSHIP & VALOR AWARDS

- Distinguished Flying Cross, the Military’s highest aviation award, presented for heroic actions during Operation Iraqi Freedom II, March 2004 – March 2005.
- Bronze Star Medal, awarded for superior combat leadership during Operation Iraqi Freedom II.
- Air Medal, awarded three times, including once With Valor, for superb aviation leadership while in direct fire combat with the enemy during Operation Iraqi Freedom II.