U.S. Naval efforts to take Charleston began April 1863. By February 1864, the port was eventually closed, but Charleston did not surrender until early 1865.

Legend
- Blackened towns or installations captured by Federal Navy or in conjunction with Army.