The Army of Northern Virginia arrived just in time. Field's and Kershaw's divisions (I Corps) were in position before the first Union attack. A. P. Hill's III Corps had begun to arrive before afternoon attack. Lee, himself, arrived in Petersburg about 1130 hours.

Remainder of Wright's VI Corps at Bermuda Hundred.

Meade attacked at 0400, noon and late in the afternoon.

APPARENT STRENGTHS
Federal- 95,000
Confederate:
Morning- 20,000
Afternoon- 38,000

EASTERN VIRGINIA, 1864
SIEGE OF PETERSBURG
Federal Attacks. 18 June 1864