1. PURPOSE: The United States Military Academy Library offers selective internship opportunities to graduate and post-graduate students in information-related fields with a special focus of equipping the next generation of library leaders to navigate a rapidly evolving profession. The USMA Library is uniquely positioned to provide insight into a wide variety of library disciplines including academic librarianship at a top-ranked institution of higher education, special librarianship within the military and federal government, and archival management within the National Archives and Records Administration.

2. USMA LIBRARY INTERNSHIPS: The number of internships offered varies each term. Internships are generally available each academic term (fall and spring) as well as during the summer months. Internships are unpaid, volunteer positions, though may be offered for academic credit through graduate programs. These opportunities comprise of two primary components:

1. Immersion experiences within all functional areas of library operations.
2. A targeted project of mutual interest to the intern and the USMA Library.

Approximately half of the time allocated to the internship will be spent on immersion experiences, with the other half devoted to project work. Immersion experiences are conducted in each of the areas listed below. The point of contact for each area will determine a specific schedule and plan for covering areas within the block.
